

DAILY DEMOCRAT.

PRINTED AND PUBLISHED BY
HARNEY & HUGHES,
THIRD STREET,

BEST SIDE, BETWEEN MARKET AND JEFFERSON STREETS.

NOTICE TO ALL.—Let it be remembered that all small advertisements must be paid for in advance. All odd-numbered, such as Pictures', Masons', Odd-Fellows', Religious, etc., readings, will be charged half price, but invariably be paid for in advance. We shall therefore, that are sent in without the money, will not be published.

The advertisements of a field square (or other) or other kind, will be charged double price.

So can the first insertion, and 25 cents each additional.

Advertisements inserted in the evening edition at half price.

DEMOCRATIC STATE NOMINATIONS.

FOR GOVERNOR.
BEVERLY L. CLARK,

OF SARATOGA.

FOR LIBERTY GOVERNOR.
HERMAN MAGOFFIN,

OF MARSH.

FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL.
R. W. WOOLLEY, of Fayette.

FOR CHIEF JUDGE.

JAMES H. GARDNER, of Boyle.

FOR REGISTER.

T. J. FRAZER, of Breathitt.

FOR ALDERMAN.

J. A. GRINSTEAD, of Fayette.

FOR CITY BOARD OF EDUCATION.

JAMES N. NEFFERT, of Breathitt.

FOR SUPERINTENDENT PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

J. S. MATTHEWS, of Fayette.

THURSDAY, MARCH 29, 1855.

Great rejoicing in England over the death of the Czar! They feel happy, no doubt, in watching this indecent expression!

The French took an opposite course, and thereby showed quite a different appreciation of the decorous and proper on such an occasion. To rejoice over a victory is natural, but a tear over the slaughter, even of the enemy, in the midst of triumph, is often the mark of a savage people.

Mr. Ward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free.

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

GERRIT SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount to much there only when the people there will assist, and when Congress will set the slaves free."

It will certainly co-operate with you in any such measures as you may adopt to prevent the introduction of this important sludge to our national peace and safety.

I have the honor to be, very respectfully yours obedient servant,

JOHN McKEON,
To A. T. HUNTER, Esq., U. S. Marshal, N.Y.

WILLIAM SMITH and Wm. H. Seward.—These gentlemen are looking home. Mr. Smith says:

"Mr. Seward's Abolitionists don't amount

